

Marianne Mlambe
1261 Woodbridge Street, St Paul MN 55117
Cell Phone: (763) 951-9141
mmlambe@uacsmn.org
Teaching License: MDE, 7-12 Language Arts

DIVERSE TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Experienced in working with students of varied social economic, cultural and ethnic background.

Proficient in using Effective Differentiated Strategies in teaching.

Student motivator, who includes encouraging students who are struggling behaviorally and academically, including working with students with learning disabilities on variance license.

Enthusiastic, innovative and passionate instructor who initiates student-centered environment.

SELECTED SKILLS

Utilizes proven techniques to teach and facilitate all levels of student capacity and performance, for instructional needs for the developmental, average and the advanced workers.

Employs combined instructional methods to make writing, communication, critical thinking and language concepts relevant across the curriculum.

Explores, creates and up-dates lessons and instructional materials to reflect current teaching strategy-trends.

Creatively uses developmental technology to enhance student learning.

Assesses individual student learning to determine necessary action-plans such as referrals to tutoring, special education and other supporting learning programs.

Creates and Implements strong developmental tests and other forms of measurement appropriate to student work.

Provides academic advice to students

Establishes rapport with diverse individuals and groups of students.

Collaborates with colleagues, creating a team environment for support purposes.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

2014 Until now- Universal Academy Charter School doing varied tasks while waiting for grade levels.

2012-2014- Substitute Teaching and working as a Nurse-Assisting position..

2011-2013- Academic Teacher for Bridging: Reading, Writing and Math performance in Grades 7-8.

2009-2011- Substitute Teaching at Various Learning Institutions

2002-2009- Language Arts Teaching: Higher Ground Academy, St. Paul MN 55104

1991-2002- Language Arts and Life-Science in St Paul Public School

EDUCATION

Masters of Arts in Education, Hamline University, St Paul, MN. U. S.

Bachelor of Arts in Education, University of Malawi, Malawi, Africa, after completing the AA degree a pre-requisite as an Assistant Principal position of A Nun-Director, Sister Marilyn Soder, an American, who was retiring, to come back to United States, which conceded with my coming to United States as a Political refugee in 1989

Registered Nursing Assistant.

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

Teaching youth in Church community

(After school) Tutoring to second language learners to all grade levels in Reading and Math. Visiting elderly in neighborhood nursing homes.

Helping the needy through the church organization known as St Vincent de Paul